FOREWORD

This volume contains the abstracts of talks presented on the 9th Winter School, submitted for publications before June 10, 1981. It is a pity indeed that a number of brilliant lectures is not recorded here.

I owe thanks to the participants for making the winter school useful, exhausting and pleasant. It is a pleasure to acknowledge my indebtedness to the Faculty of Mathematics and Physics of the Charles University for organizing the winter school and to the Mathematical Institute of Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences for publishing this volume.

I am particularly obliged to the secretaries of organizing committees, dr. J. Bureš, dr. V. Souček and dr. J. Vinárek.

Zdeněk Frolík
